Minutes:

ISAAC HENDERSON, Las Vegas resident, stated that the City has made great decisions respecting redevelopment since January of this year. He urged the Council to consider his previously submitted letter-of-intent proposal, which will help all people and enable elected officials to do more for the community.

DOROTHY BARNES expressed her support of the high-rise buildings, as well as of the associated slogan of obtaining a higher standard of living, which is what she desires for all. As more people move into the Las Vegas community, she truly hopes that they do not experience what she is currently undergoing.

TOM McGOWAN, Las Vegas resident, reminded the members that the community is the key to successful redevelopment, because people are needed to make all projects successful. New Orleans, even with its towers, is nothing without the residents. He commented that CITY ATTORNEY JERBIC speaks too fast.

NICHOLAS DEFORE, 301 Winfair Court, attempted to speak about MICHAEL SIGNORELLI, the applicant under Item 46 of the 10/4/2006 City Council Agenda; however, VICE CHAIRMAN REESE advised him that he had to limit his comments to the jurisdiction of the Redevelopment Agency, or reserve his comments for the Citizens Participation portion at the end of the City Council meeting.

ALEXIS MORELL indicated that Neonopolis needs more restaurants.

THE MEETING ADJOURNED AT 11:23 A.M.

Respectfully submitted:

Gabriela Portillo-Brenner, Deputy City Clerk
